

Short profile Walter Epple

Walter Epple, BSc from ETH, member of the Management Board, Senior Consultant, responsible for software development

Walter Epple has been looking after domestic and foreign customer projects since 1998. He is responsible for establishing what customers require, implementing these requirements after programming, and for training. As a proven project and strategic management specialist, for many years he has been advising our customers to make them as successful as possible. He accompanies our customers through the development process in order to remain successful in the long term. He is also responsible for developing parm Ltd.'s software solutions.

Education/activities

Civil engineering course at ETH, graduating with a BSc., Zurich, Switzerland; professional qualification as Certified Projects Director IPMA Level A, PRINCE2 Foundation; specialist presentations at various conferences.