Consulting benefits

We support companies worldwide!

parm ltd. offers a top-of-the-range consulting service! We support companies worldwide within the domains of strategic, process and project management as well as strategic leadership consulting.

Benefits

Our globally experienced specialists help you to implement your strategy in specific projects and processes and to successfully realise your operative business.

Our coaches are not only lecturers, they also have extensive practical experience as managers, project leaders, mentors and supervisors, thus ensuring ongoing relevance to practice. Their comprehensive know-how is focused to dovetail each consulting assignment individually to the specific needs of your company.

Our highly qualified consultants are graduates who continuously develop their professional skills and acquire international credentials . They present papers at leading conferences and publish peer-reviewed articles (Certified Project Director IPMA Level A, PRINCE2, CMMI, PMBoK, studies of business administration etc.).

Direct and situation- oriented consulting and qualified controlling allows parm ltd. to set up the necessary preconditions for greater professionalism in your business practice. This reduces costs and increases the value of your enterprise in a sustainable way.

Our proven approach to consulting based largely on customer participation saves you unnecessary detours. We mobilise people and develop a shared viewpoint for all participants!
